CELEBRATING CREATIVITY IN ELDER CARE

with Gary Glazner, award winning New York based poet on Creative Aging

In this keynote talk, Glazner shares from his over ten years work as the founder of the Alzheimer's Poetry Project. He gives examples of evidenced-based, dance, music, storytelling and visual arts programs highlighted in his book, Dementia Arts: Celebrating Creativity in Elder Care, Health Professions Press, 2014.

This fun, high-energy keynote is packed-full of simple techniques to help create high-quality arts programs. The training builds communication skills and helps increase the ability to connect with people living with memory loss. The methods are useful in working with audiences of all ages, other disability communities and cognitively well elders.

The workshop includes information on current dementia arts research and Glazner's research with Adelphi University School of Social Work.

ABOUT GARY GLAZNER

Gary Glazner is the founder and Executive Director of the Alzheimer's Poetry Project, (APP). The APP was the recipient of the 2013, Innovations in Alzheimer's Disease Caregiving Legacy Award and the 2012 MetLife Foundation Creativity and Aging in America Leadership Award. The National Endowment for the Arts listed the APP as a "best practice." NBC's "Today" show, PBS NewsHour and NPR's "All Things Considered" have featured segments on Glazner's work.

Glazner is the author of Dementia Arts: Celebrating Creativity in Elder Care. In 2014, Glazner began working in the Arts and Corrections field with his Poetry and Improv program, at the Unit for the Cognitively Impaired, at Fishkill Correctional Facility in upstate New York. In 2016, Glazner designed and co-taught "Creativity in Elder Care," for the University of Arizona Medical School. In 2014, with support from the NEA and the Poetry Foundation, Glazner launched "Poetry for Life," an intergenerational program that brings students of all ages together with people living with memory loss to perform and create poetry. The APP has provided programming in 32 states and internationally in Australia, Canada, England, Germany, Poland and South Korea.
